Grand Cru

Margaux De Brane 2014 Very expressive nose, bursting with strawberry and cherry aromas, with floral and vanilla hints.	Margaux France	4,200,000
Pauliac De Latour 2011 Great concentration and a previously unseen quantity of tannins characterized the wines, which possessed extraordinary aromatic intensity, freshness and precision. Rich, ripe and mineral with a very long, lingering finish. An exceptional year which will improve many years to come.	Pauliac France	6,800,000
Chateau Gruaud Larose 2008 The nose shows some appealing evolution with appropriate time in the decanter, notes of black tea leaves, tobacco and black olives with some sour-salty notes faintly suggestive of soy sauce and black bean. The palate shows a moderate flesh at the very beginning. An attractive wine still with a rather tight structure but showing some aromatic complexity which bodes well	Saint Julien France	7,200,000
Chateau Pape Clement 2007 Full-bodied with magnificent intensity, beautiful fresh acidity, tremendous definition and a powerful, moderately tannic and super-concentrated finish.	Pessac Leognan France	8,800,000
Chateau Lynch Bages 2012 Powerful, elegant and longevity, cigar box and black fruit nose, current and cedar with exotic spices on the palate	Pauliac France	10,500,000
Chateau Pichon Longueville De Lalande 2007 The 2004 vintage is a structured wine chunky, solid and perfectly balanced. The purity and finesse of its tannin give it a texture that is rich, fleshy and silky.	Pauliac France	11,500,000
Chateau Figeac 2012 The wine notes of truffle, earth, coffee bean, licorice & spicy berry notes opened to a silky, round, supple, textured, elegant wine, filled with ripe, sweet, plums and black raspberries	Saint Emilion France	13,000,000
Chateau Palmer 2007 Black red, very rich concentration of velvety, spicy fruit with great depth but not over extraction. Impressive persistence with good density of tannins to back it up	Margaux France	22,000,000
Chateau Mouton Rothschild 2001 The wine reveals a rich array of aromas including red and black fruit, wild blackberry and liquorice. On airing, peppery spices mingle harmoniously with vanilla. Floral aromas reminiscent of lilac and peony are followed by minty, mineral and smoky notes. Substantial on the palate, powerful but creamy tannin, Chateau Mouton Rothschild 2007 displays remarkable balance.	Pauliac France	32,500,000
Chateau Mouton Rothschild 2007 Absolutely amazing! From the moment we first sipped to the dregs of the bottle, it smelled like a field of blueberry flowers. I know that such flowers don't exist, but if they did, this is what they would smell like Exhibited some fruit, but mostly earthy, mushroom-y tannin.	Pauliac France	39,500,000
Chateau Haut-Brion 2002 The wine has a complex bouquet of ripe fruit, tobacco, mineral, and earthy scents. The wine is rich, ripe, medium to full-bodied and well structured.	Graves France	42,500,000
Chateau Margaux 2004 The wine is one of opulent richness, a deep, multidimensional bouquet with a fragrance of ripe black currants, spicy vanillin oakiness and violets.	Margaux France	45,000,000
